

We were delighted to welcome our many guests in the audience at the Soho Hotel for what was our inaugural Question Time event on 20th March.

Topics discussed included the relationship between diversity and both board and business performance; what advice would be given by the panel to Rachel Reeves the Shadow Chancellor; and the state of the London IPO and equities markets.

Particular thanks are owed to our fantastic panel Baroness (Helena) Morrissey, Rupert Soames (new President of the CBI) and Sir Nigel Rudd, only the day before he collected a Lifetime Achievement prize at The NED Awards.

It was all deftly chaired by Nick Hewer, of Countdown and The Apprentice fame... No 'apprentices' were present so for once there was no one to fire!

Do let me know if you would like to be invited to Condign events in future.
